Fireflies

3 0 1

Chapter 1 by Madison Torres

The fireflies flashed in the evening like baby stars. The teenaged boy tried to catch them, but he always was just one step too early or late, always missed them. What he didn't realize, however, was that the fireflies were leading him to somewhere deeper in the forest than he already was. He didn't want to go home anyway, so it wouldn't've mattered had he realized it. Eventually, he came to a treehouse, and it was like the fireflies just, disappeared.
